Email from Linda Boscono to Chairman on March 12th 2021

Per the discussion at Thursday night's meeting I am sending my ideas on incentives for Neighborhood Watch captains.

1. A certificate of appreciation when someone signs up
2. A gift certificate from a local merchant, restaurant or deli when someone signs up
3. Along with the ID card already proposed, the NW captain could get a decal to be placed on car in a visible location
4. Choose one NW captain to have a monthly meeting with the Police Chief
5. Choose one NW captain to attend one of the events on our calendar to see what we do and talk and meet with the public
6. Feature one NW captain a month on City Net Services
7. Have a bi monthly luncheon and/or picnic for captains underwritten by a local restaurant or deli
8. A pin isn't that visible or I would suggest either a hat or shirt
9. The Ride Along as previously suggested would be a great incentive and gain first-hand experience on what police officers go through on a daily basis.
10. I really like the idea proposed for Shooter Training. I participated in this exercise with the county of San Mateo and it was a real eye opener. Having the laser gun and faced with various scenarios really puts you in the middle of the action and how decisions must be made in a split second

These are just some of my thoughts. At the next CCPC meeting I would be happy to present them to the full committee. Have a great weekend. Linda
